Smooth Jazz lovers kicked off their 2013 holiday season at the 3rd Annual Taste of Jazz, presented by Details2Decor. Guests came out to enjoy an evening with catering and wine experts, and special smooth jazz entertainment with Kim White and Phil Denny. Guests weren't disappointed!

"We are truly blessed." commented Starr Rivers and Ethel Bonner of Details2Decor, an event planning business providing the best all-around service in the industry that is unique, innovative, diverse, and exciting.

"The generosity and excitement of our guests was absolutely amazing."

Over sixty guests attended the 3rd annual event and played a key role in helping Details2Decor raise funds and awareness for Living Hope Transitional Homes, a local nonprofit committed to helping each resident find healing and wholeness in Christ while building a foundation of life skills that will improve the quality of our families for a lifetime. On a mission to help transition families from homelessness to self sufficiency, Living Hope's story was shared by Rasheda Brown, a Living Hope board member. Brown also expressed sincere appreciation and gratitude to the attendees and Details2Decor for choosing them as their 2013 charitable organization.

Saxophonist, Kim White, kicked off the evening with smooth jazz entertainment while guests enjoyed divine dinner by the bite from Village Pantry and Aynies Catering. Sonya Trent, of Exquisite Wines LLC, offered samples of her distinctive, high-quality wines and shared her knowledge about dinner wine pairing and her passion to give back to the community.

Additional dessert and wine samples were also provided by Markell-Bani Fine Wines and Haute Chocolates. Marilyn Wilson, of Marilyn Wilson Photography, was on hand to capture all of the event highlights. Stir Cincy, a unique interactive venue in Olde Montgomery, served as venue host for this year's event.

In partnership with Gerald Belle, of GAB Productions, it was also exciting to introduce Cincinnati to a new emerging jazz artist who is already earning billboard charted hits.

Guests were captivated by the smooth, soulful sounds of national recording artist Phil Denny, performing hits from his debut CD, Crossover and Christmas CD, The Messenger. Phil Denny concluded the evening with a wonderful meet and greet session and CD signing for guests.

Major sponsors of the 3rd Annual Taste of Jazz included: Stir Cincy, Village Pantry Catering, Aynies Catering, Haute Chocolates, Exquisite Wines LLC, Markell Bani Wines, GAB Productions, Marilyn Wilson Photography, Old School 100.3 and
